8 KEENEN R. AGEE,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 RENO POLICE DEPARTMENT, et al.,

12 Defendants.

13 3:24-cv-00306-MMD-CSD

14 STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

15 In order to protect the confidentiality of confidential information obtained by the parties in connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as follows:

16 1. Any party or non-party may designate as "confidential" (by stamping the relevant page or 17 other otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party 18 or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, or 19 confidential business or financial information, subject to protection under the Federal Rules 20 of Civil Procedure or Nevada law ("Confidential Information"). Where a document or 21 response consists of more than one page, the first page and each page on which confidential 22 information appears shall be so designated.
23

24 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or in 25 response to written discovery as "confidential" by so indicating in said response or on 26 the record at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such

1 material. Additionally a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) 2 days after receipt of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the 3 designation is proposed, that specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be 4 treated as "confidential" information. Any other party may object to such proposal, in 5 writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the parties shall follow the procedures
6 described in paragraph 8 below. After any designation made according to the procedure 7 set forth in this paragraph, the designated documents or information shall be treated 8 according to the designation until the matter is resolved according to the procedures 9 described in paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all parties shall be responsible for making 10 all previously unmarked copies of the designated material in their possession or control 11 with the specified designation.

13 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than information 14 that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the information is 15 produced solely for the purpose of this case.

16 4. Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of this Court
17 obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be disclosed 18 to any person other than:

20 (a) counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house counsel and co-
21 counsel retained for this litigation;

22 (b) employees of such counsel;

23 (c) individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a party, to the 24 extent deemed necessary by Counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;

25 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of this litigation,

1 provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this 2 Order as Exhibit "A" (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so disclosing the 3 Confidential Information and made available for inspection by opposing counsel during 4 the pendency or after the termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon 5 order of the Court) before being shown or given any Confidential Information and 6 provided that if the party chooses a consultant or expert employed by [THE 7 CORPORATE DEFENDANT] or one of its competitors (as listed on Appendix A), the 8 party shall notify the opposing party, or designating nonparty, before disclosing any 9 Confidential Information to that individual and shall give the opposing party an 10 opportunity to move for a protective order preventing or limiting such disclosure;

11 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;

12 (f) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and

13 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A witness shall sign the 14 Certification before being shown a confidential document. Confidential Information may 15 be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only in a deposition at which 16 the party who designated the Confidential Information is represented or has been given 17 notice that Confidential Information shall be designated "Confidential" pursuant to 18 paragraph 2 above. Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not be allowed to retain 19 copies.

20 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such information 21 to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except as set forth herein.

22 6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed with the court 23 under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those

1 documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the court's electronic filing procedures
2 in accordance with Local Rule IA 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties,
3 the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption
4 in favor of public access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu,
5 447 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006); Pintos v. Pac. Creditors Ass'n, 605 F.3d 665, 677-78 (9th 6 Cir. 2010).

7 7. A party may designate as "Confidential" documents or discovery materials produced 8 by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document
9 numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents
10 or discovery materials. Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others 11 without restriction any information designated by that party or non-party as 12 confidential, although a document may lose its confidential status if it is made public.

13 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such party 14 may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the 15 material. The party or non-party who designated the material shall have seven (7) days 16 from the receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the 17 material as confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of 18 establishing that the document is entitled to protection.

19 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential Information, 20 all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof unless 21 and until one of the following occurs:

22 (a) the party or non-party claims that the material is Confidential Information withdraws such 23 designation in writing; or

(b) the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential Information fails to apply to the Court for an order designating the material confidential within the time period specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or

(c) the Court rules the material is not confidential.

10. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of Confidential Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless otherwise agreed or ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of Confidential Information, other than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence, and deposition transcripts, shall either (a) return such documents no later than thirty (30) days after conclusion of this action to counsel for the party or non-party who provided such information, or (b) destroy such documents within the time period upon consent of the party who provided the information and certify in writing within thirty (30) days that the documents have been destroyed.

11. The terms of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise apply to the use of documents at trial.

12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material protected by privilege or work product protection.

111

13. Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be
1 informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the parties'
2 respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.
